

Sponsor package Amsterdam one-day symposium SURfaPLUS

Theme: “ The Future of Adjuvants”

We would like to offer your company a sponsorship for our upcoming symposium for agrochem and adjuvant professionals.

This event will be a one-day international symposium in Amsterdam focusing on the future of adjuvants, with approximately 100 VIP's in this field. Our sponsor package gives your company the following exposure:

- The Company's banner can be shown at the venue
- Company's logo plus link to the company's website on all digital and hard copy expressions
- Digital expressions are: at least three html newsletters, the SURfaPLUS Amsterdam event page, inclusion in at least one issue of Adjuvants & Formulations, inclusion in the USB-stick with the presentations, on screen during the welcome coffee, the breaks, the lunch and the reception at the end of the day.
- Hard copy expression is the programme leaflet on the day itself.
- Note that the three html newsletters are sent to 1350 persons worldwide qualified as people with a professional interest in adjuvants for agrochemicals

Costs of the standard sponsor package: € 550
